

Boston Business Journal Honors Eagle Bank's Paula Chesbrough as CIO of Year

Boston, MA — On June 27, 2013, Paula Chesbrough, Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer at Eagle Bank, was honored by the Boston Business Journal and Mass High Tech as one of three CIOs of the Year in the Corporate category. Paula, who joined Eagle Bank in January 2000, has been working in the Information Technology field for over 20 years. Under her guidance, Eagle Bank has implemented several innovative electronic products and services such as, but not limited to, mobile banking applications, SMS text banking, finance management and debit card rewards through online banking, business debit cards, and SMS fraud alerts for debit card customers. Paula also heads the Bank's IT Steering Committee, which is a forum to allow open and fluid communication across all departments of the Bank in relation to any IT related projects.

Eagle Bank, Everett's first community bank founded in 1889, offers a wide range of retail consumer banking services, as well as a complete portfolio of commercial retail and lending products and services. As a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and the Depositors Insurance Fund (DIF), depositors' funds are fully insured. For more information please call (800) BANK-EAGLE or visit us on the web at www.bankeagle.com.